

Lakehead University commits to translating the Okanagan Charter into action by:

1. Developing a comprehensive Wellness Strategy for all who study and/or work at Lakehead University.
2. Working collaboratively to promote health and wellbeing for both students and employees.
3. Collaborating and sharing our processes and best practices locally, nationally and internationally.